

ISFIELD VILLAGE HALL

GDPR - DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

Isfield Village Hall is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy.

This Privacy Notice explains the types of Personal Data we may collect about you when you interact with us. It also explains how we store and handle that data, and keep it safe.

It is likely that we will need to update this Data Privacy Notice from time to time.

The rules on Processing of Personal Data are set out in the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

1. Definitions

Data Controller - A Data Controller determines the purposes and means of Processing Personal Data. Isfield Village Hall is the Data Controller for this GDPR Data Privacy Notice.

Data Processor - A Data Processor is responsible for Processing Personal Data on behalf of a Data Controller.

Data Subject - A natural person

Categories of data: Personal Data and Special Categories of Personal Data

Personal Data - The GDPR refers to 'Personal Data' as any information relating to an identifiable person who can be directly or indirectly identified in particular by reference to an identifier (as explained in Article 6 of GDPR). For example name, passport number, home address or private email address. Online identifiers include IP addresses and cookies.

Special Categories of Personal Data - The GDPR refers to sensitive Personal Data as 'Special Categories of Personal Data' (as explained in Article 9 of GDPR). The special categories specifically include genetic data, and biometric data where processed to uniquely identify an individual. Other examples include racial and ethnic origin, sexual orientation, health data, and trade union membership, and political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs.

Processing - means any operation or set of operations which is performed on Personal Data or on sets of Personal Data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organization, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction.

Third Party - means a natural or legal person, public authority, agency or body other than the Data Subject, Data Controller, Data Processor and persons who, under the direct authority of the Data Controller or Data Processor, are authorized to process Personal Data.

2. The purpose(s) of processing your Personal Data

The law on data protection sets out a number of different reasons for which an organization may collect and process your Personal Data including:

Consent

In specific situations we can collect and process your data with your consent.

For example, when you provide your address and gift aid choice when joining The Friends of Isfield Village Hall in order for us to provide H.M.R.C. with the information they need to accept our claim for Gift Aid.

Contractual obligations

In certain circumstances we need your Personal Data to comply with our contractual obligations.

For example, if you make a provisional booking of the village hall, we will collect your details in order to contact you to discuss your booking requirements, to send you our terms and Conditions of hire and Booking Form, to confirm your booking and to invoice you in due course.

Legal compliance

If the law requires us to, we may need to collect and process your data.

For example, we can pass on details of people involved in fraud or other criminal activity, affecting Isfield Village Hall.

Legitimate interest

In specific circumstances, we require your Personal Data to pursue our legitimate interests in a way which might reasonably be expected as part of running our charity and which does not materially impact your rights, freedom or interests.

For example, we may use your contact details to send you information, probably by email, about events and activities that we think might interest you, or to invite you to complete a survey response.

For all data matters please contact the Isfield Village Hall Management Committee via email to isfieldvillagehall@gmail.com

3. The categories of Personal Data concerned
